

France Sketchbook Tour with Paul Jackson,aws,nws

October 4th thru 14th, 2009

Paris, Giverny, Versailles & Mont St. Michel

Artists and friends! Let's get together, travel to one of the world's most beautiful and intriguing places, and hone and improve those watercolor and drawing skills. This Fall is a perfect time to sketch and paint our way from Paris to Normandy, or just enjoy the journey and experience France at an artists pace. Let the sights, sounds and tastes of this charming corner of the globe inspire you....and if you do want to improve your watercolor sketching skills, you have at hand one of the best instructors available. The culture, people, architecture and geography of France will be our focus and inspiration, and your sketchbook, travel journal and photos will become a personal record that you will treasure for years to come.

Cost for this 10 day trip will be $3200 plus airfare from your departure city to Charles De Gaulle airport in Paris, France and return. This will give you the option of using any frequent flyer miles you may have accumulated.

Included in this unique package is lodging, nine nights accommodation in superior tourist class hotels, based on double occupancy, and with private facilities in all rooms. Also included is breakfast daily as well as three dinners, services of a private long distance motorcoach of deluxe standard. Sightseeing and excursions as well as entrance fees are included. There are optional excursions that can be added to our original plans once we are on our tour. This will allow some individuality to your tour or some time to relax and soak in the best of France.

A commitment deposit of $250/person will be due by June 1, 2009. For more information or to register for this inspiring adventure, contact Marla Jackson at marlamjackson1@aol.com
